

At 3 months	Indicators for Concern
Turns head toward bright light and sounds  Watches faces and objects  Lifts head and chest while on stomach  Makes cooing sounds, chuckles  Soothes with cuddling  Enjoys touch  Kicks feet, moves hands  Brings hands to mouth  Smiles	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Does not watch moving objects</li> <li>• No startle to sound</li> </ul>
At 6 months	Indicators for Concern
Recognizes happy and sad voices  Plays with hands and feet  Brings most objects to mouth  Reaches for objects with both hands and moves from hand to hand  Sits but may need support  Babbles more than 2 sounds  Rolls from stomach to back  Turns to find your voice  Has good head control  Laughs while playing  Reaches and grasps toys, objects  Has predictable sleep pattern	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Unable to roll over</li> <li>• Difficulty lifting head</li> <li>• Does not turn head to direction of sound</li> </ul>
At 9 months	Indicators for Concern
Begins crawling  Smile at self in mirror  Explore objects closely with hands and eyes  Plays peek-a-boo and patty cake  Begin sitting without assistance  Looks for hidden toy  Throws toys or objects  Pulls self up, stands while holding on  Feeds self finger food such as cereal	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Unable to sit by self</li> <li>• Difficulty picking up objects</li> <li>• Not imitating or babbling</li> </ul>

Imitate sounds like "ooh" and "ahh"
At 12 months	Indicators for Concern
Pulls self up and stands  Says "Mama", "Baba", or "Dada"  Takes a few steps while holding on  Copies your sounds  Begins to follow simple directions (please come here, drink your juice)  Waves bye-bye  Presses buttons on phone, toys  Enjoys being read to  Use 1-3 words  Holds bottle	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Does not use single words like "Mama" or "Dada"</li> <li>• Difficulty crawling</li> <li>• Needs to use hand to maintain sitting</li> </ul> (back to top)
At 15 months	Indicators for Concern
Stands and steps towards or walks  Stacks 2-3 blocks  Helps to dress by holding out arms or legs  Knows and says 4-5 words  Makes voice go up and down, to sound like a conversation  Listens to a story  Curious - will explore on own	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Unable to stand alone</li> <li>• Does not point to objects, people</li> <li>• Does not hold own cup</li> </ul>
At 18 months	Indicators for Concern
Walk and maybe run a little  Climb up or down one stair  Enjoys pull toys  Scribbles  Prefers to feed self  Knows names of things, people  Throws a ball  Drinks from a cup and eats with a spoon  Plays along side other children  Squats to pick up toys	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Unable to walk without help</li> <li>• Does not say at least 15 words</li> <li>• Unable to feed self with spoon</li> </ul>

Begins pretend play
At 24 months	Indicators for Concern
Kicks a large ball Turns pages, 2 or 3 at a time Imitates housework Recognizes familiar pictures, books and knows if they are upside down Asks for items by name Uses 2-3 words together Makes circular strokes with a pencil Says "mine" Jumps in place Engages in pretend play (using spoon as an airplane)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Does not follow simple directions</li> <li>• Does not pretend play</li> <li>• Walks on toes</li> <li>• Difficulty holding large size crayon</li> </ul>
At 36 months	Indicators for Concern
Stands on one foot for a moment Walks up stairs Rides a tricycle Feeds self Opens a door Responds to feelings of others Indicates need to use the toilet - shows interest in toilet training Partially dresses and undresses Shares toys, takes turns during play Uses 3-word sentences Names at least one color Completes 3-4 piece puzzle	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Words/speech not understood by others</li> <li>• No interest in other children</li> <li>• Poor balance, falls frequently</li> </ul>